

Teamwork Activity

Successful teams are ones whose members say yes—to big dreams, to great challenges, and to one another. Take a look at the following questions. If you and your teammates can say yes to them, then you are well on your way to accomplishing your dream:

1. Do we trust one another?
2. Do we have a concern for one another?
3. Do team members feel free to communicate openly?
4. Do we understand our team's goals?
5. Do we have a commitment to those goals?
6. Do we make good use of each member's abilities?
7. Do we handle conflict successfully?
8. Does everyone participate?
9. Do we respect our individual differences?
10. Do we like being members of this team?
